

What does it mean for human beings to be made in the likeness of God?

It is the reverse of what took place when the Son of God was made in the likeness of men.